ISO 22000:2018 FSSC 22000 V6.0 INTERNAL AUDITOR

Course Introduction

This Food Safety Management Systems (FSMS) Internal Auditor's Course is designed to assist industries of various sizes, including those in the food and/or food packaging sectors, food packaging manufacturing, and related industries, in evaluating and auditing their FSMS as per the ISO 22000:2018 standard.

Following ISO 19011 guidelines, participants will learn how to evaluate the efficient implementation and maintenance of a management system. By examining the Plan, Do, Check, Act (PDCA) cycle, individuals will grasp the role of internal audits in preserving and improving their food safety management systems. Furthermore, attendees will understand the responsibilities of an auditor in planning, executing, documenting, and overseeing an internal audit of a food safety management system in accordance with ISO 22000:2018 and ISO 19011:2018.
